Food & amp; Music

The Bride may wear a red wedding dress symbolizing love and joy. At the wedding reception, a nine-course meal (lasting up to three hours) is very popular. A family member may act as the official "Master of Ceremonies" orchestrating family introductions, toasts, comedy sketches, and a reenactment of the newlywed's courtship.

NIGHT BEFORE NOODLES

Many Korean-American couples today are torn between having a traditional Korean wedding or a modern westernized one. One groom came up with an excellent compromise. Because he knew how important it was to his bride-to-be to honor her family and her heritage, he decided to throw a huge rehearsal dinner at a traditional Korean banquet hall, complete with classic Korean dishes such as kook soo, a noodle soup, and kimchi.
