Get Google to Recommend Your Product or Service Over Your Competitors.: If you're in business, you've probably tried to optimize your website, either on your own or through an SEO company that you paid for. So you also probably know that it takes 6 months or more (usually more) to see high placements on search results for organic listings. Imagine being able to have your business show up in Google right at that moment when your prospects (your customers) start searching. This is the most used part of the search engine. It's also known by other names, such as auto-complete or auto-suggest. When a consumer types in that keyword or phrase, (for example, plumbing Los Angeles), your business will be seen in the auto-complete box next to the searched phrase. We call this "search box optimization." Now you might be wondering exactly what benefit does my business get from this? The main one is customers. Everything begins with a search. You are gaining a powerful advantage over your competitors simply by being the first thing that a customer sees when typing something related to your business or product. You know the biggest issue with standard SEO? Everyone else is doing it too! Just think of how many SEO companies call you every week. So even if you're sitting at the top of page one, some of your competition is too, and they want your spot. With search box optimization, not only do your customers see you before ever seeing your competition, when they choose your business name from the auto-complete box you can own the entire first page of search results. The bottom line is
