Family Choice Health Network: Founded in 1995, Family Choice Health Network has created one of the largest groups of Primary Care Physicians (PCPs) in Orange County. Family Choice Health Network has a vast selection of services, from physical therapy, social services, and radiology to dermatology, cardiology, and pediatric services. With Family Choice Health Network, you are covered from A-Z in your health care needs. And since we have such a large group of PCPs, you can choose the right doctor for your specific needs.
