Fibich, Leebron, Copeland & Briggs: At Fibich, Leebron, Copeland & Briggs, we draw from over a century of legal experience and expertise in our area to provide strong representation for injured victims and their families. As veterans of the field, our Houston personal injury lawyers have been offering compassionate client-centered service and aggressive courtroom advocacy since 1992.

One unique trait that sets our firm apart from others is three of our attorneys are Board Certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. Tommy Fibich is board-certified in civil trial law, and Russell Briggs and Jay Henderson are board-certified in personal injury trial law. These board certifications give our firm the ability and resources to handle even the most complicated injury cases, such as explosion and fire accidents.
