Orthopedic After Accident in Florida - Injury Assistance Network: Injuries in accidents can range from minor cuts and bruises to severe trauma such as broken bones, spinal injuries, and traumatic brain injuries. This can potentially lead to long-term disability or even death. Injury Assistance Network will connect the injured person with an orthopedic after accident to provide them with proper care. Whether it is a car crash, slip and fall, or any other accident, these medical specialists will assess the damage and develop a treatment plan.
