How To Contact Ticketmaster Customer Service by Phone: For customer service assistance with Ticketmaster in the United States, the main phone number is 1-888-576-8568. This line is your primary resource for support with ticket purchases, event inquiries, order issues, refunds, and account problems. It is crucial to have your order confirmation number and account details readily available before calling to expedite service. Be prepared for potentially long wait times, especially around major on-sale dates or following event cancellations. For faster resolution, consider using the comprehensive help center on the official Ticketmaster website or their mobile app, which can handle many common requests like view-at-home ticket access and order management without requiring a phone call.
